At the Talent Museum

105 Market Street

We will be holding a special Tuesday Evening at the Museum (TEAM) meeting, to explain to people of the community the significance of the Day of the Dead, or Día de los Muertos, celebration in our community. Latino residents from the Talent-Phoenix area will share their understanding of this custom, plus they will share the stories of how their families immigrated to Talent or Phoenix and their histories, making our community their new home. Come celebrate their journey with us while enjoying some pan dulce from a local panaderia. Chela Sanchez, whose family is from Phoenix, will also be sharing the history and practice of Día de los Muertos.
