

Talent Historical Society

Is proud to host

“Tuesday Evening at the Museum”

A series of presentations and discussions featuring topics of interest to our members to be held the fourth Tuesday of each month at the THS Museum.

The Forty third Presentation in our Series:

“Archeology in Oregon – the Britt Project”

January 22, 2019

6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

Presented by Chelsea Rose, MA, RPA

Join us as Chelsea speaks on SOULA’s decade of excavation and research into the historic Peter Britt Homestead. She will discuss the various excavations, artifacts and key findings, and what they are working on now as well as what they hope to do in the future.

Chelsea is a historical archaeologist and research faculty member at the Southern Oregon University Laboratory of Anthropology who specializes in the settlement and development of the American West. She was one of the archeologists featured on OPB’s Time Team America television series. Chelsea was born and raised in northern California and lives in the Rogue Valley.

You do not need to be a member of the Talent Historical Society to attend.

Well behaved children are welcome and encouraged to attend.

Due to Fire Code restrictions, attendance will be limited to the first 72 attendees.

There is no admission charged but donations are gladly accepted.

Talent Historical Society Museum is located at 105 North Market Street in Talent, Oregon
